GLENDALÉ MAYOR SHOWCASES STAND UP FOR VETERANS EVENT ON “GLENDALÉ TODAY”

Glendale, Ariz. — Glendale Mayor Jerry Weiers’ new edition of the TV show “Glendale Today” highlights the recent Stand Up for Veterans event held at Glendale Community College. The successful community event, which hosted 100 service providers, was created to give veterans and families free educational, medical and housing assistance. In addition, company recruiters offered career counseling and hired attendees on site.

The show takes you along with Mayor Weiers behind the scenes as he walks the audience through the different benefits and services available to those who have served our country. The Mayor also interviewed Glendale Presiding Judge Elizabeth Finn about the various court agencies that provide support to veterans.

This first-time event, spearheaded by Mayor Weiers, proved to be a one-stop public service that made a tremendous impact on many veterans in Glendale and across the Valley.

The show begins airing Nov. 1 at 8 p.m. “Glendale Today” is produced by staff from the city-owned TV station Glendale 11. The show will air daily on Glendale 11, as well as online via the city’s video library at www.glendaleaz.com/video and exclusive segments can be found on the city’s YouTube channel at www.youtube.com/MyGlendale11.
